

VILLAGE OF BROADVIEW EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 2025-06

WHEREAS, for several months, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”), through its subsidiary agency, the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), has engaged in an unprecedented and chaotic nationwide campaign to target, round up, detain, and deport any person suspected of unlawfully residing in the United States; and

WHEREAS, as a result of this surge in raids and arrests targeting immigrants, the Village of Broadview (the “Village”) has been under siege because the ICE Processing Facility (“BPF”) for those arrested in “Operation Midway Blitz” is located in the Village at 1930 Beach Street, Broadview, Illinois; and

WHEREAS, a serious and credible bomb threat has been directed towards the Village of Broadview Municipal Building where the Village holds its regular public board meetings; and

WHEREAS, on Saturday, November 15, 2025, protesters attempted to storm the Broadview Municipal Building and have made repeated threats to cause harm and continuous disruption to the Village and its officials in an effort to prevent the Monday, November 17, 2025 board meeting from occurring; and

WHEREAS, the threat is ongoing and as such, I find that the emergency still exists;

NOW, THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me as the President of the Village of Broadview, and pursuant to Title 1, Chapter 5 and Title 6, Chapter 3 of the Village of Broadview Code of Ordinances (“the “Village Code”) and any other approved ordinances or laws of the Village of Broadview and the State of Illinois, I hereby order the following:
